On page 510 of an article by Stoll et al (Biol Psychiatry 2000;48:505–517) the second to last sentence in the PET subsection should read:

Single studies, without independent reports of replication, have observed decreased metabolism in basal ganglia and the thalamus in bipolar depression (Baxter et al 1985) and decreased metabolism in the left amygdala in mania (Al-Mousawi et al 1996).

The correct reference for Baxter et al 1985 is as follows:

An author’s name, Marquis Vawter, was misspelled on the cover of the September 15, 2000 issue, Biol Psychiatry 2000;48(6).
