Editorial introduction

The Editors of the Journal of Banking and Finance are pleased to publish this selection of papers presented at the VI and VII Financial Conferences held at the University of Rome Tor Vergata. The first group of papers were presented at the Conference on: “Public Debt Management, Financial Markets and Policy Issues” that took place on 20/22 November 1997, the second at the Conference on “Competition Among Financial Systems and Bank–Firm Relationship After Euro” that took place on 26/27 November 1998.

We wish to gratefully acknowledge the help of Professor Michele Bagella of the University of Rome, Tor Vergata, who organized the Conferences, and of Professor Anthony M. Santomero of the Wharton School for his help in the selection of the manuscripts.
